Hi Matt,

I hope you are doing well. Apologies for adding another email to your inbox – I realized sent you Almat's CV in August without including the required FARA disclaimer. I'm reattaching here with the proper disclaimer. Apologies for any confusion.

Warm regards,
Kaylee

Dear Matt,

I hope this email finds you well. Our firm represents the Ministry of Justice of the Republic of Kazakhstan and I write to request a meeting with you, or another appropriate staffer, for Vice Minister Almat Madaliyev on the afternoon of Tuesday, Sept. 3 or anytime on Wednesday or Thursday Sept. 4 and 5, respectively. Vice Minister Madaliyev would very much appreciate the opportunity to discuss the attached July 29 letter to HE Kassym-Jomart Tokayev, to which Senator Sanders is a signatory, regarding the case of Iskander Yerimbetov. I have attached a CV for your reference.

Thank you in advance for your consideration, and don't hesitate to contact me if you have any questions. I look forward to hearing from you.

Warm regards,
Kaylee Otterbacher

Subject: FW: Meeting Request for Vice Minster Almat Madaliyev the Week of Sept. 2

Good afternoon Isaiah,

I hope you are well. I sent the below meeting request to Ben Widness in your office a while back and upon sending a follow up earlier this week, learned that he will be out of the office until next week. The request is for Kazakhstan's Vice Minister of Justice Almat Madaliyev to meet next week Tuesday, Wednesday, or Thursday regarding the attached July 29 letter to President Tokayev, which was signed by Senator Wyden. We would love to finalize our schedule this week to the extent possible. Given Ben's schedule, would you be able to point me to any other appropriate staff in your office who may have worked on this letter, with whom the Vice Minister can meet next week?

Thank you for your time, I hope to hear from you soon.

Warm regards,
Kaylee Otterbacher
